

World-changing experiences for companies and their employees

PROBLEM

Now more than ever, companies need to inspire and engage their employees in authentic and purposeful ways. Yet they are failing.

They are missing the opportunity to connect employee engagement and professional development with social impact beyond the workplace. Yet they spend billions trying to figure it out - because employees are demanding it!

High Turnover

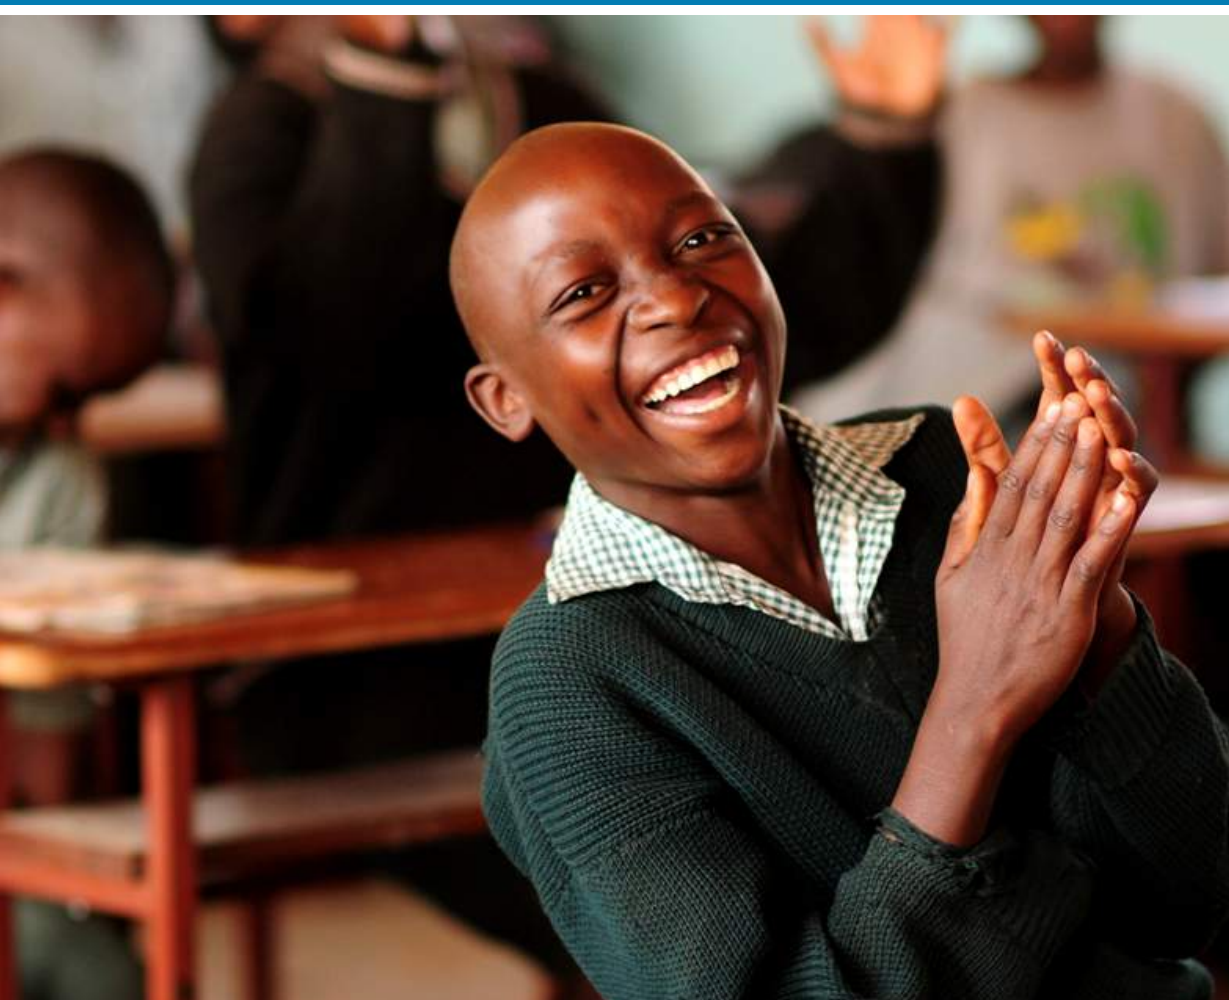

Low Engagement

Lack of Purpose

THAT'S WHERE WE FIT IN

We develop, engage, and inspire employees through opportunities that improve the world

We do this through our experiences that provide personal and professional development while giving back in communities around the world. All of this is enhanced by a platform and 'digital story' that extends the impact company-wide, while serving as a powerful recruitment and retention tool.

AT THE CORE, OUR EXPERIENCES CHANGE COMPANIES AND COMMUNITIES FOR THE BETTER.

WE'RE BUILDING THIS INTO A BIG BUSINESS THROUGH...

- Proven viability - 15+ LOI's from companies signed in only a month of selling; Late stage talks with Fortune 500 companies
- Large and growing market - Companies spend over $50b on employee engagement & professional development specifically related to travel initiatives
- Team - We have a track record of building successful companies and now have a unique opportunity to create something with real impact and significant revenue
